The Lord's Place received a Certificate of Accreditation by demonstrating compliance with Accreditation Standards for Excellence in Nonprofit Management by Nonprofits First for 2018-2019.

The Lord's Place has, for the ninth consecutive year, attained the coveted 4-star rating from Charity Navigator for demonstrating strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency. This is its highest possible rating and verifies The Lord's Place exceeds industry standards and out performs most charities in its area of work. Only 3% of charities in America have received at least 9 consecutive 4-star evaluations. (May, 2020)

The Lord's Place has earned the 2019 Platinum GuideStar Seal of Transparency. This leading symbol of nonprofit transparency and accountability is presented by GuideStar, the world's largest source of nonprofit information. (August 2019)

The Lord's Place has been named among the "Best Places to Work in South Florida" by the South Florida Business Journal, and the only non-profit to receive this award in South Florida. It was only one of 15 large sized companies with 100+ employees to win this coveted designation, which is based on the results of confidential surveys of company employees' attitudes about their workplace. (February 2020)

The Lord's Place was ranked 11 among the top 50 nonprofit companies to work for in the United States by The Nonprofit Times. The program identifies, recognizes and honors the best employers in the nonprofit industry, benefiting the industry's economy, workforce and businesses. We are so grateful! (April 2020)

For the seventh year in a row, The Lord's Place was given the distinction by Florida Trend Magazine as one of the "Best Companies to Work For." Rated number 15 in best mid-sized companies, The Lord's Place was rated highly on leadership and planning, corporate culture and communications, role satisfaction, work environment, relationship with supervisor, training and development, pay and benefits, and overall engagement.
