

NEWS RELEASE

September 26, 2025

For immediate release

Media contact: Cara Scarola Hansen

The Lord's Place Public Relations Counsel

cara@yourmissionmarketing.com

561-632-6747

Marisa Glover Appointed CFO of The Lord's Place

The Lord's Place announces the appointment of Marisa Glover as Chief Financial Officer. In this position, she leads strategic financial operations while strengthening compliance frameworks.

Glover brings more than 15 years of progressive leadership experience in finance, regulatory compliance, and organizational management across both public and private sectors. Her extensive background spans critical areas of financial stewardship and regulatory oversight.

Prior to joining The Lord's Place, Glover served as director of finance at FLITE Center and as audit and compliance director at Voices for Florida. At these organizations, she implemented robust internal control systems and enhanced financial reporting processes.

Her earlier experience includes positions with the Florida Public Service Commission, Department of Health, Department of Transportation, and various private sector organizations. Glover consistently demonstrated her ability to streamline operations, manage contractual obligations, and develop effective staff training programs.

Glover received dual bachelor's degrees from Saint Leo University (accounting and management) and Florida State University (criminology), providing her with a unique perspective that combines financial acumen with analytical problem-solving skills.

"Marisa's proven track record in budget management, contract administration, program development, and stakeholder relationship management makes her well-suited to support our initiatives at The Lord's Place. Her strong financial oversight and compliance expertise will help ensure the continued success of our program implementation and sustainable growth in breaking the cycle of homelessness in Palm Beach County," stated Christine Frederick, CEO of The Lord's Place.

About The Lord's Place

For 45 years, The Lord's Place, a non-sectarian agency, has been working to break the cycle of homelessness for men, women, and children in Palm Beach County, FL, through innovative, compassionate and effective services. The Fortin Family Campus in West Palm Beach provides training and support services including: the operation of Café Joshua; job training and placement services; clinical and care coordination; community engagement services; and a reentry program helping men and women transitioning from incarceration. The agency also owns or rents 15 supportive and graduate housing locations, as well as 82 scattered site apartments, to help house about 300 individuals every night. For more information, visit thelordsplace.org.

Photo ID:

Marisa Glover, CFO for The Lord's Place.

Click here to view the news release.

####

